PROVISIONS OF HIS ARMY BILL.

Provisions Also of the Hull Measure, and of a Bill Introduced by Sulzer-Other Washington Notes of

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 24 .-(Special.)-The House, according to agreement, to-day took up the army reorganization bill. Mr. Hull, chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, made the opening speech, in behalf of the majority report. He was followed by Representative Cox, of Tenressee, and by Mr. Sulzer, of New York, who introduced a separate bill, and then by Mr. Hay, of Virginia, who framed the minority report. Mr. Hay made a powerful argument in behalf of his substitute, and was attentively listened to and warmly applauded

DEVII'S AUCTION LAST NIGHT.

Production Not as Good as Former Ones, But Apparently Pleased, Charles H. Yale's Devil's Auction this season does not compare with some of the former productions of the spectacle seen here, but the performance last night seemed to please the audience, which was "top heavy," both galleries being packed. The girls in the ballet are not remarkably pretty, by any means, and some of them may have been in the original pro-duction of the "Devil's Auction," for they are not too young to have enjoyed that distinction, However, with the beautiful scenery, the clever mechanical ef-

The Post-Office Department is to Issue new series of stamps for use in Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines. The I-cent Cuban stamp will bear a representation of the statue of Columbus at Habana; the 2-cent stamp a map of Cuba; the 3-cent stamp a picture of the statue, "La Cubana," an embiematic marble female figure which stands in a Habana park; the 5-cent stamp a picture of a New York and Cuba mail company steamer, and the 10-cent stamp an agricultural scene, in which a Cuban is ploughing with oxen. The Porto Rico and Philippine stamps have similar designs. The Chicago Record claims that the Post-Office Department will treat all the islands as foreign countries until some permanent form of government is adopted, and until that time the old rates of postage will be maintained. Perhaps the Cuban and Philippine Rovernments would like to design their own stamps.

A Tribute to Dr. Hoge. At a called meeting at the Richmond Home for Ladies, on the 22d instant, Dr. W. W. Parker, vice-president, in the chair, Mr. W. W. Henry called attention to the loss of our highly-esteemed president, Dr. Moses D. Hoge, and moved that Dr. W. W. Parker be appointed to prepare a memorial for the press for publication. It was unanimously carried. On motion of the president, Mr. W. W. Henry was added to the committee, which reported

When, eighteen years ago, the two denominations, Presbyterian and Metho-dist, determined jointly to establish a home for old ladies in the city of Richmond, all eyes turned towards Dr. Hoge to be its president. He entered upon the duties of the office with great picasure and faithfulness. The monthly meetings he attended with regularity. If it hap-pened that he was absent from press of business, he promptly explained and apologized. He evidently regarded it as his Christian duty to attend to detail connected with its conduct. Stephen was the first man ever appointed to such an office, and he by the apostics. Great success attended Dr. Hoge's administration. The home was at once filled, and has continued to be so. An intelligent committee of ladies have cooperated with him zealously in this pleus work. Its expenses have been met by wors. Its expenses have been net by both churches, and it has kept out of debt. Providence seems to have smiled upon the joint union, and it can be said, "See how these Christians love one another." In coming years hundreds of old ladies will pass their declining days in happiness and peace here. This is the work our beloved president had so near his heart, and has so wisely accomplished in the firm establishment of the institution. We have therefore great cause to unite as we do, in the sorrow which aus fallen upon our city and the Church of Christ at his death.
